Three of Klöver's five directors, Ulf Ivarsson, Johanna Fagrell Köhler and Pia Gideon are independent both in relation to the Company and to the Executive Management. As at 31 December 2019, these three are also independent in relation to the major shareholders.

Rules of procedure

The work of the Board takes place in accordance with the rules of procedure adopted at the first ordinary board meeting after the annual general meeting. These rules of procedure include directives about the division of duties and reporting between the Board, the Chairman of the Board and the CEO and the plan for the year which is followed for the work of the Board.

The Board's work during 2019

Every ordinary board meeting deals with the state of the market, acquisitions, divestments and investments, strategic initiatives, financial follow-up, the financial position, organization and company culture, a report from the management organization, customer-related issues and the state of the credit and financial markets. The head of finance reports regularly at every board meeting. In addition, senior executives are regularly invited to the Board to report on strategic initiatives.

During the year, focus has, among others, been placed on developing the Company's work with sustainability, the execution of a strategy resulting in a concentration on selected growth regions as well as expansion into markets outside of Sweden. At least one of the members who are independent in relation to the Company and the Executive Management must also be independent in relation to the Company's major shareholders
